

Position: National Academies Manager

Organization: After School All-Stars

Location: Any ASAS Chapter City

ORGANIZATION BACKGROUND:

Founded in 1992, After-School All-Stars provides free, daily out-of-school time programs to middle school-aged youth in school sites across the U.S. After-School All-Stars provides free, comprehensive after-school programs that keep children safe and help them succeed in school and life. Our vision is for our All-Stars to be safe and healthy, to graduate high school and go on to college, to find a career they love, and to give back to their communities.

A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY:

The National Academies Manager is responsible for overseeing ASAS's youth program academies, content development platforms, and our signature annual youth conference (All-Star Leadership University). This position requires a skilled and experienced youth development professional who works as part of the Programs Division to develop and deliver high-quality youth programs and content responsive to the needs of our chapters, staff, and youth.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES:

National Academies & All-Stars Leadership University -

- Manage and implement ASAS's signature virtual National Academy model and annual youth development conference (ASLU).
- Expand and enhance the National Academies model in order to scale across the network in a cost-effective and efficient manner.
- Collaborate with national and chapter leadership to identify new academy content areas and develop innovative platforms to deliver the learning modules.
- Develop and manage partnerships with national stakeholders and organizations to increase the capacity and effectiveness of the National Academies and ASLU.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

The National Academies Manager should embody ASAS's core values: accountable, collaborative, transparent, proactive, and entrepreneurial. The National Academies Manager is a national leadership position and is expected to have at least 6-8 years' experience in the youth development or education sector with demonstrated success in programs, professional development, evaluation, and content facilitation.

The ideal candidate will also possess excellent interpersonal and stewardship skills with the ability to passionately communicate ASAS's mission and accomplishments. An understanding of the national non-profit, education landscape, and a successful track record within the youth development sector. Excellent communication and relationship-building skills with an ability to prioritize, negotiate, and work with a variety of internal and external stakeholders. An undergraduate degree is required. Although the position is remote, ideally, you would be in LA, DC, or in one of our chapter states

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

Position: National Academies Manager

Organization: After School All-Stars
